- $25 Gibbston Highgate Estate Winery Hearthbreaker Chardonnay 2008
Central Otago, New Zealand: GOLD Royal Easter Wine Show, Silver Air New Zealand
- $24 Gibbston Highgate Incognito Pinot Gris 2009
Central Otago, New Zealand
Complex, unoaked, sophisticated and loves to pair with seafood/shellfish: Recommended by DECANTER, 87pts Robert Parker

Fruit Wines and Ciders:

*Archibald Orchards, Bowmanville, ON....apple wines, dessert wines, hard ciders 6 % alcohol., sparkling ciders (non-alcoholic). $10 - $40
.....separate price list available.*

Reds:

- $20 Chateau Queynac AOC Bordeaux Merlot 2005
Bordeaux (Right Bank), France
A petite chateau producer literally sweating over every step of the winemaking.
Drinks better than a wine of $30 from a larger producer. 2005 was the Vintage of the Century in Bordeaux.
- $23 Tenuta di Gracciano Rosso di Montapulciano 2007
Tuscany, Italy
A more open and ready to drink medium bodied version of it's big brother: Vino Nobile.
- $37 Tenuta di Gracciano Vino Nobile di Montapulciano 2006
Tuscany, Italy
Big brother....very similar to the more well known Brunello di Montalcino
Luxurious, full, dark, dense, age forever if you want, Prime Rib kinda wine.
- $29 Rigoloccio Cabernet e Alicante 2007
Tuscany, Italy. From the Maremma coastal region of Tuscany.
Much more flamboyant and open like most west-coast townspeople.
As big as the Brunello but softened by the Alicante grapes to give it a less rigid structure. Easy going with any meal.
- $29 Gibbston Highgate Incognito Pinot Noir 2008
Central Otago, New Zealand
Silver Air New Zealand Int'l: Similar to top Burgundy wines in France.
Finesse, complex, looks lighter in colour but as full as any full bodied wine....achieves this through building layers of flavour.
